PARENTAL INFORMED CONSENT FORM

Dear Parent,

The research described below is being conducted with the permission of the Ministry of National Education of the Republic of Türkiye. Participation in the research is entirely voluntary. Your child is free to choose whether or not to take part. The research does not pose any undesirable effect or risk to your child. Your child's participation depends on your consent. Not taking part in the research, or withdrawing from it, will not affect the students' academic achievement or their relationships with their school and teachers. No identifying information is requested from the students. Responses will be kept confidential and will be evaluated only by the researcher. The research procedures do not include questions or situations that could cause personal discomfort. However, if your child feels uncomfortable because of the questions or for any other reason during participation, he or she is free to stop answering and leave. Your child may withdraw at any time after joining the research. In that case, it is sufficient to tell the person administering the data collection tool that he or she does not wish to complete the research. Not taking part in the research, or withdrawing after taking part, will not bring any responsibility to your child. If you have any questions about the study before giving your consent, you may ask the researcher.
