Consent form for participation in a health research project

Study title: "Pre-symptomatic Alzheimer's disease: Cognitive training and transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS)"

Declaration from the participant:

I hereby consent to participate in the study, "Pre-symptomatic Alzheimer's disease: Cognitive training and transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS)", for which I will complete a cognitive task on a tablet in combination with headset-delivered transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS) on three different occasions.

I declare that I have received sufficient written and oral information about the study to be able to consent to participate herein. I know it's voluntary to participate and that I can withdraw from the study at any time without having to give a reason and without any consequences for any current or future treatment I may require.

I have been informed that I can get a copy of the signed consent form, if I desire.
